Geography and Digital Technologies Seminar: The cultural landscapes of Perth and Fremantle

Dr. Tod Jones (Geography) and Dr. Andrew Woods (Curtin HIVE)

How should we understand the landscapes we move through and shape? Geographers have answered these questions through the concept of cultural landscapes. The presentation will make use of the online Historical Panoramas of Perth and Fremantle which will be projected using Curtin HIVE’s wrap-around Cylinder display.

Date: Monday, 30 July 2018, 4-5pm
Venue: Curtin HIVE, John Curtin Gallery, Curtin University

Public Lecture: Politics, school education and teacher ‘response-ability’

Dr. Brad Gobby (School of Education)

Brad will discuss educational controversies and issues, including the Safe Schools program, to explore the current politicisation of school education and the impoverishment of schooling’s potential. Brad will argue that teachers have a ‘response-ability’ to engage with the politics of education for the sake of their students.

Date: Wednesday, 1 August 2018, 5pm
Venue: Council Chambers, Building 100, Level 3, Curtin University
